Minister for Finance, announces opening of ValidSoft Head Offices in Tullamore

ValidSoft (www.validsoft.com) are pleased to announce the opening of their new Headquarters in Ireland. The official opening was presided over by the Minister for Finance, Mr. Brian Cowen who officially announced the opening of the new Head Office at Castle Buildings, Tara Street, Tullamore, Co.Offaly on Tuesday October 16th.2007. The Office is managed by Chief Information Officer, Peter Golden, formerly of Citibank. The move follows significant interest and demand for ValidSoft products globally and the new Head Office will be responsible for Development, Testing, Administration and Human Resources to meet the demands of the growing international organisation..

ValidSoft, an Irish Security Software Company, which develops security software solutions to help global institutions counter the most sophisticated online and cross channel fraud. ValidSoft solutions are at the cutting edge of the market and are used to verify the authenticity of both consumers and banks (Mutual Authentication), and the integrity of online transactions (Transaction Verification) for the mass market, in a highly cost effective and secure manner, yet easy to use and intuitive.

ValidSoft is headquartered in Ireland, with offices in London, New York, Sydney, and Singapore, with distribution agreements covering China, and other Asia Pacific countries. The company will continue its international expansion in the Americas, Europe and Asia throughout 2008. ValidSoft currently employs approx 20 people however our business plan projects to employ up to 100 IT Skilled people over a 3 year period depending on business take-up.

"There were many reasons for choosing Tullamore as our Head Office" said Golden. There is an abundance of skilled experienced technologists available mainly due to its ideal central location. "Tullamore also offers an excellent quality of life, making it appealing to experienced personnel who want to leave city areas for family reasons".

The Minister for Finance said : "ValidSoft is a fine example of an emerging and successful Irish company that is headquartered in Ireland and competing in what is a very competitive global marketplace in addition to making a significant contribution to our growth. From a local perspective, the arrival of ValidSoft in Tullamore is a very welcome addition to the commercial landscape in the town."
